Anne is developing a broad commercial practice across Chambers' core areas of expertise.

She joined Chambers in 2026, following the successful completion of her pupillage under the supervision of Adam Sher KC, Natasha Bennett and Daniel Edmonds.

Before coming to the Bar, Anne qualified as a solicitor in Australia in 2020 and worked predominantly in international commercial and investor-state arbitration.

She was an Associate at Sydney Arbitration Chambers where she acted as tribunal secretary to Professor Doug Jones AO. Thereafter, she was a Deputy Counsel at the ICC International Court of Arbitration where she administered over one hundred cases from the Hong Kong office. Anne also gained experience in commercial and public law disputes at leading law firms in Sydney and London.

Anne obtained a dual Bachelor of Laws (Hons I) / Bachelor of Arts (Politics) (Dist) degree from the University of New South Wales and the BCL from the University of Oxford.
